

WISCONSIN DISTRICT MUSIC MINISTRY COVENANT

Realizing the importance, privilege and responsibility of the Music Ministry of the Wisconsin District:

I hereby declare:

I have repented of my sins, have been baptized in the Name of Jesus Christ for the remission of my sins, and have received the gift of the Holy Ghost with the initial evidence of speaking in other tongues (Acts 2:38).

I will endeavor to be faithful in the following areas:

- 1. I will be at all scheduled practices.
- 2. Because I am upholding God's reputation, I make a covenant to look my best.

Men should be clean shaven-no beards or moustaches. Hair should be worn above the ears and off of the collar and should be your natural coloring.

Slacks, dress shirt, tie, socks and dress shoes are to be worn. No blue jeans or tennis shoes. Sleeves should come to the elbow.

Ladies should have neat, uncut hair that is your natural coloring.

Dresses should be below the knee. Splits should not extend above the bottom of the knee – front, sides and back. Necklines should not be below the collarbone – front and back. Clothing should not be tight fitting or see through material. When you raise your arms, you should not embarrass yourself or others.

No jean dresses/jumpers or skirts. No culottes. Tennis shoes are not to be worn.

No makeup of any kind, necklaces, or earrings. Wedding rings may be worn.

3. I understand that my appointment with the WDMM is based on my willingness to fulfill this covenant to the best of my abilities. I realize that if I am to be an effective leader in worship, I must first be an example of what my church and the Wisconsin District stands for and teaches.

Your character and conduct beyond the instruments or platform is just as important as when you are behind the instruments or microphones.

4. I understand that if I fail to fulfill this covenant, I will be dismissed from my music ministry responsibilities until the matter is resolved.

5. I make a covenant to be loyal to those that have been placed in authority by the Wisconsin District Board.
